BILLY SUNDAY'S FIGURES DROP

Pastors Discover Campaign Netted Only 6,000 "Possible Church Accessions."

INVESTIGATION IS ENDED
Clergymen Find Half of 23,000 Trail-Hitters Already Were Converts.
One-fourth Fair Prospects.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Baltimore, May 13.—Rev. Dr. Oliver Huckel, pastor of Associate Congregational Church, with the co-operation of some thirty other pastors, whose churches took part in the late Billy Sunday evangelistic campaign, have made an analysis of the trail-hitters and investigated the results of the campaign. His analysis shows that of the 23,000 trail-hitters fully one-half were already converts, nearly one-fourth were indefinite quantities and about one-fourth "fair prospects." That is, it now appears that only 6,000 of the 23,000 trail-hitters were possible accessions to the churches.
Concerning the grand total of 23,000 trail-hitters, Dr. Huckel said that he had been interested to ascertain the real facts, and that he is now able to give probably the first analysis of what these figures really mean from first hand knowledge.

WILSON URGED TO TAKE STEPS AS PEACEMAKER

George W. Kilgus was elected president of the American Peace Society at the annual meeting held at the Raleigh yesterday. Other officers elected were Benjamin F. Trueblood, honorary secretary; Arthur Deakin Gail, secretary; and George W. White, treasurer.
The following were elected vice-presidents: Theodore E. Burton, William Jennings Bryan, Andrew Carnegie, and William Howard Taft.
The executive committee is composed of George W. Kilgus, Arthur Deakin
Gail, Eugene J. Layton, Jackson R.
Ralston, Jay T. Stirling, James L.
Slayden, Theodore Marburg, George W.
White, Rockwell Harmon Potter, P. L.
Siddons, Allen Fairbank, Henry D.
Harlan, Walter L. Hendley, and Samuel
T. Dutton, and William I. Hull.
The society unanimously adopted resolutions expressing unalterable opposition to any policy differing from the essential features of the Congress of Nations and a Court of Nations, as outlined at The Hague conference, and calling upon President Wilson to take the initiative at the earliest possible moment in rendering aid to the neutral governments. His good offices for the purpose of establishing peace.

BULL MOOSE IN FOLD, CLARK TELLS HOUSE

Speaker Champ Clark taking the floor yesterday to plead for the enactment of the pending rural credits bill, incidentally stirred the Republican side of the House to applause by predicting the disappearance of the Bull Moose party.
The speaker began his speech by the assertion that all parties were under the obligation of a platform pledge to enact some sort of legislation to provide a way for the financing of farming in the United States. He read the Republican plank and the Democratic plank adopted at the last conventions.
"I haven't the Progressive platform here," he added, "but that is immaterial because the Progressives are going back to the fold anyway. It isn't necessary to read it now."
Smiling Republicans applauded the observation of the speaker. The Democratic side was silent.

What is Home Without an Heir!

This is a subject that has a place in all minds in all times. And it naturally directs thought as to the comfort of the mother during that wonderful period of expectancy.
Mothers who know recommend "Mother's Friend." It is an external remedy for the stretch marks enables them to expand without undue strain, assists the organs to work against nerves, to pull at ligaments to thus avoid pain.
Thus restful days are assured, peaceful nights are experienced, morning sickness, headache, apprehension and other distresses are among the various things which women everywhere relate they entirely escaped by using "Mother's Friend." And by its effect upon the muscles the body is retained and they return to their natural, smooth contour after baby is born.
This is an interesting and valuable thing to remember. The skin is but a net work of very small blood vessels and connective tissue and by keeping it well lubricated, firm and in strong, vigorous condition it will not stretch. And when the time has passed it will return to its natural shape without the seams and scars that are so liable to be the case if "Mother's Friend" is not used.
Get a bottle of this invaluable aid to expectant mothers. Any druggist will supply you.
It is harmless but wonderfully effective.
Write to Bradford Regulator Co., 713 Lamor Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a specially written guide book for women interested in the subject of maternity. It will prove an insur-valuable information that every woman should know all about. Write today.

Baby Exhibits to Be Open Today to Satisfy Throngs Central Building Will Receive Public From 3 to 8 o'Clock in Response to Big Demand—Mothers and Babies on Frolic in Rock Creek Park.

PROGRAM FOR TODAY.
3:00 p. m.—Address by Dr. L. C. Tucker, Assistant Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, at Central Exhibit Building, Fifteenth and F streets northwest.
4:00 p. m.—Address by Rev. D. H. Martin, pastor of the Dumbarton Avenue M. E. Church, at Central Exhibit Building.
4:30 p. m.—Special musical program.
5:00 p. m.—Address by Rev. Earle Waller, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, at Central Exhibit Building.
5:20 p. m.—Vocal solos by Mrs. Earl Whiffey and others.
6:00 p. m.—Address by Dr. Joseph S. Wall at Central Exhibit Building.
7:00 p. m.—Address by Mrs. Max West, of the United States Children's Bureau.
8:00 p. m.—Final closing of Exhibit Building.
Special demonstrations of milk handling by Dr. T. C. Merrill, of Bureau of Chemistry, from 4 until 7.

In response to demands from all parts of the city, the executive committee in charge of Baby Week held a special meeting yesterday afternoon and decided to open the Central Exhibit Building, Fifteenth and F streets northwest, today from 3 until 8 o'clock.
The crowd that filed the exhibit building last night, when various prizes, won by school children and others in connection with Baby Week, were awarded, greeted with applause the announcement that the exhibit would be opened today.
In spite of the late decision, the committee secured a number of prominent speakers for today, and it is expected the exhibit building will be crowded.
More than 100 mothers and their babies went on the frolic to Rock Creek Park yesterday afternoon, the last event of Baby Week, intended to impress upon the mothers' minds the need for keeping babies in the open. A stream of automobiles took the plebeians from the Central Exhibit Building to the park at 2 o'clock.
A band played throughout the afternoon, stopping only long enough to allow Miss Grace Anderson and other infant welfare workers to deliver short lectures on the care of the baby. The colored mothers and their babies were taken on a similar trip to Camp Pleasant.
The committee, which conducted free moving picture lectures in all parts of the city during the week last night submitted its report, which shows that thousands of mothers who did not get into the Central exhibit building, had the gospel of "How to Care for Baby" preached to them through the moving picture lectures. Those who conducted the lectures were: Mrs. William P.
Herbst, Mrs. C. H. Cross, Mrs. C. W.
Shull, Mrs. Charles B. Keyser, Mrs. L. S.
Graessle, Mrs. Ernest Brincken, Mrs. Orie A. Rogers, Miss M. E. Stalling, Mrs. A.
Tingley, Mrs. J. A. Phillips, Dr. Paul Johnson, Dr. Edith Seville Code, Dr.
Laura S. Brennan, Miss N. Reed, Miss Grace Hillyer, Miss Helen Gardner, Miss Margaret Thompson, Mrs. I. K. Hunter, Miss Peterson, Miss Minnie A. Crews and Mrs. Alice Benjamin.

LAND PAYS TRIBUTE TO MOTHERS TODAY

White carnations will be worn by many Washingtonians today as an honor to "the best mother who ever lived," and in the churches of our city mother and her work will be lauded in sermons and sometimes today is "Mother's Day." By vote of Congress and Presidential proclamation flags are required to be displayed on all public buildings and citizens throughout the country are requested to raise the national banner on their homes as a public expression of our love and reverence for the mothers of our country.
For several years the observance of the second Sunday in May as Mother's day has been a custom, and in 1912 a resolution introduced by Representative J.
Thomas Heflin, of Alabama, providing for its official recognition was passed by Congress. It declared that "the American mother is the greatest source of this country's strength and inspiration." The American mother is doing so much for the home, the moral uplift and the religion, hence so much for good government and humanity.
The executive committee is composed
of George W. Kilgus, Arthur Deakin
Gail, Eugene J. Layton, Jackson R.
Ralston, Jay T. Stirling, James L.
Slayden, Theodore Marburg, George W.
White, Rockwell Harmon Potter, P. L.
Siddons, Allen Fairbank, Henry D.
Harlan, Walter L. Hendley, and Samuel
T. Dutton, and William I. Hull.
The society unanimously adopted
position to any policy differing from the
essential features of the Congress of Nations and a Court of Nations, as outlined at The Hague conference, and calling upon President Wilson to take the

ments. His good offices for the purpose of

DISTRICT PROGRESSIVE SAYS PARTY DELEGATE

The District of Columbia is overwhelmingly Progressive, in the opinion of Roy C. Clavin, who has just been nominated delegate to the national convention of the Progressive party in Chicago next month.
Mr. Clavin expresses this opinion in a letter to John Callan O'Donoghue, District national committeeman for the Progressive party.
"I believe the District is overwhelmingly Progressive," says Mr. Clavin. "That was demonstrated in November, 1914, when, simultaneously with the national elections, a straw vote was held in this city."
"Among some of the principles for which I will work as delegate are: Permanent and complete consolidation of the Republican and Progressive parties; the Americanization of the government of the District, by means, first, of the immediate passage of the Poindexter bill, giving the people of the District a delegate to Congress; then by the further extension of the franchise to the men and women of the District; readjustment of the salary schedule of the United States government employees, providing for general increases, and the passage of a satisfactory pension law for government employees."

"SCHOLEM ALEICHEM," JEW HUMORIST, DEAD

Special to The Washington Herald.
New York, May 13.—Solomon Rabinowitz, known and loved by millions of Yiddish-speaking Jews for his writings under the name of Scholem Aleichem, died today from a complication of diseases at his home, 268 Kelly street, the Bronx.
As Scholem Aleichem Rabinowitz had been known to the Jewish public for thirty years. He was regarded as the most gifted man writing in Yiddish. His talent lay especially in humorous stories, and for this he was often spoken of in this country as "the Yiddish Mark Twain."
The Jewish writer met Mark Twain ten years ago, and the American humorist said to him: "You are the Yiddish Mark Twain. Well, I suppose I can be called the American Scholem Aleichem."
Mr. Rabinowitz was born in Kief, Russia, in 1859 and lived there the greater part of his life.

"SUFFRAGE SPECIAL" IS NOW HOMEWARD BOUND

Envoys from the Eastern States to the voting women of the West are on the last lap of their journey in the interest of the Congressional Union for woman suffrage. The "Suffrage Special" now is homeward bound, and final exercises marking the completion of the tour will be held Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the east front of the Capitol.
The last of the twelve "free States" visited by the suffragists was Utah. It stopped in Salt Lake City was the most important of the trip, for there a convention of women voters took place, delegates from each of the twelve States being elected to go to Washington and present before Congress resolutions requesting the immediate enactment of a suffrage amendment to the Constitution.

FAMED PENN ATHLETE VICTIM OF ROBBER

"Big Bill" Hollenback Faces Revolver
While Woman Companion
Yields Valuables.

Philadelphia, May 13.—"Big Bill" Hollenback, former captain of the Penn football eleven, and now football coach at Syracuse, and Mrs. Walter L. Ziegler, 2625 Schuylkill street, Germantown, were held up and robbed last night.
The hold-up occurred within fifty yards of the house of the White Marsh Country Club, above Chestnut Hill, where Mrs.
Ziegler and Hollenback were attending a dinner-dance. The highwayman got within 100 feet of the couple.
About 11 o'clock Mrs. Ziegler and Hollenback went for a short stroll on the club grounds. They had gone only a short distance when a man emerged from the shadows and stepped directly in their path.
"Good evening," was his greeting. Immediately followed by a cut order to "Stand where you are!" Mrs. Ziegler and her escort came to a halt. The stranger looked Hollenback up and down.
"My, but you're a big chap," he ejaculated. "Put up your hands, please. I'm generous." He produced a flashlight and a revolver.
"Don't make an outcry," was the man's warning. "This is a case of necessity, with me. Stand out, and be quick. Throw what you have on the ground. Moved by the revolver, which the man seemed only too ready to use, there was no alternative for Hollenback and Mrs. Ziegler. The football player threw two rings and $5 on the grass.
"Come on, now, you shed out, too," demanded the hold-up man, addressing Mrs.
Ziegler. She was wearing a diamond brooch, a bag worth $10, and a watch case. Mrs.
Ziegler was wearing a diamond brooch she fumbled with this, and told the highwayman she couldn't unfasten it.
Impatiently he commanded Hollenback to look for something else, then Mrs. Ziegler suddenly turned and ran, screaming.
The thug picked up the articles on the ground and scurried off, presumably boarding a trolley after he had gone a short distance.
Emilie B. Micher, who sold the dwelling at 925 Massachusetts avenue northwest to Mrs. Ethel Toy Lamar, of Atlanta, for approximately $10,000.
Harry Wardman and Thomas Bone purchased the Miner School Building at seventeenth and Church streets northwest, the institution for the education of Colored youth for approximately $30,000.
A large apartment will be constructed on its site by the new owners. Mr. Ward-man conveyed to the colored institution the building at 450 fourteenth street northwest for $2,500.
Richard E. Pardo bought the premises at 225 Adams Mill road for $20,000. The Congress Hall Hotel Company took title to the two dwellings adjoining it at 22 and 24 New Jersey avenue southeast.
The loan market figures for the week were $42,380, which was borrowed on the security of 26 lots of an average interest rate of 5.2 per cent.

WEEK'S REALTY TRADING DROPS OFF 45 DEALS

A decline of forty-five sales from the high figures established during the first week of the month, marked the realty trading during the last six days. Dealers closed only 121 deals, in which were involved 226 parcels of real estate.
Monday was the busiest day of the week with thirty sales. Wednesday was second with twenty-eight, and the other days transactions were: Tuesday, twenty-three; Thursday, twenty-six; Friday, twenty; Saturday, 1.
The near-urban district led in the selling with forty-nine lots conveyed. The northwest was second with forty-six lots, the southeast with thirty-nine, while the southwest stood fourth with 25, and the south with twenty-nine.
Probably the highest priced transaction of the week was the one made by Mrs.

Evelyn C. Page's Funeral Today

A funeral service for Evelyn C. Page, who died Thursday at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Louise Page in De-wood, will be held at the First Baptist Church there at 3 o'clock this afternoon.
